BEST FRIENDS

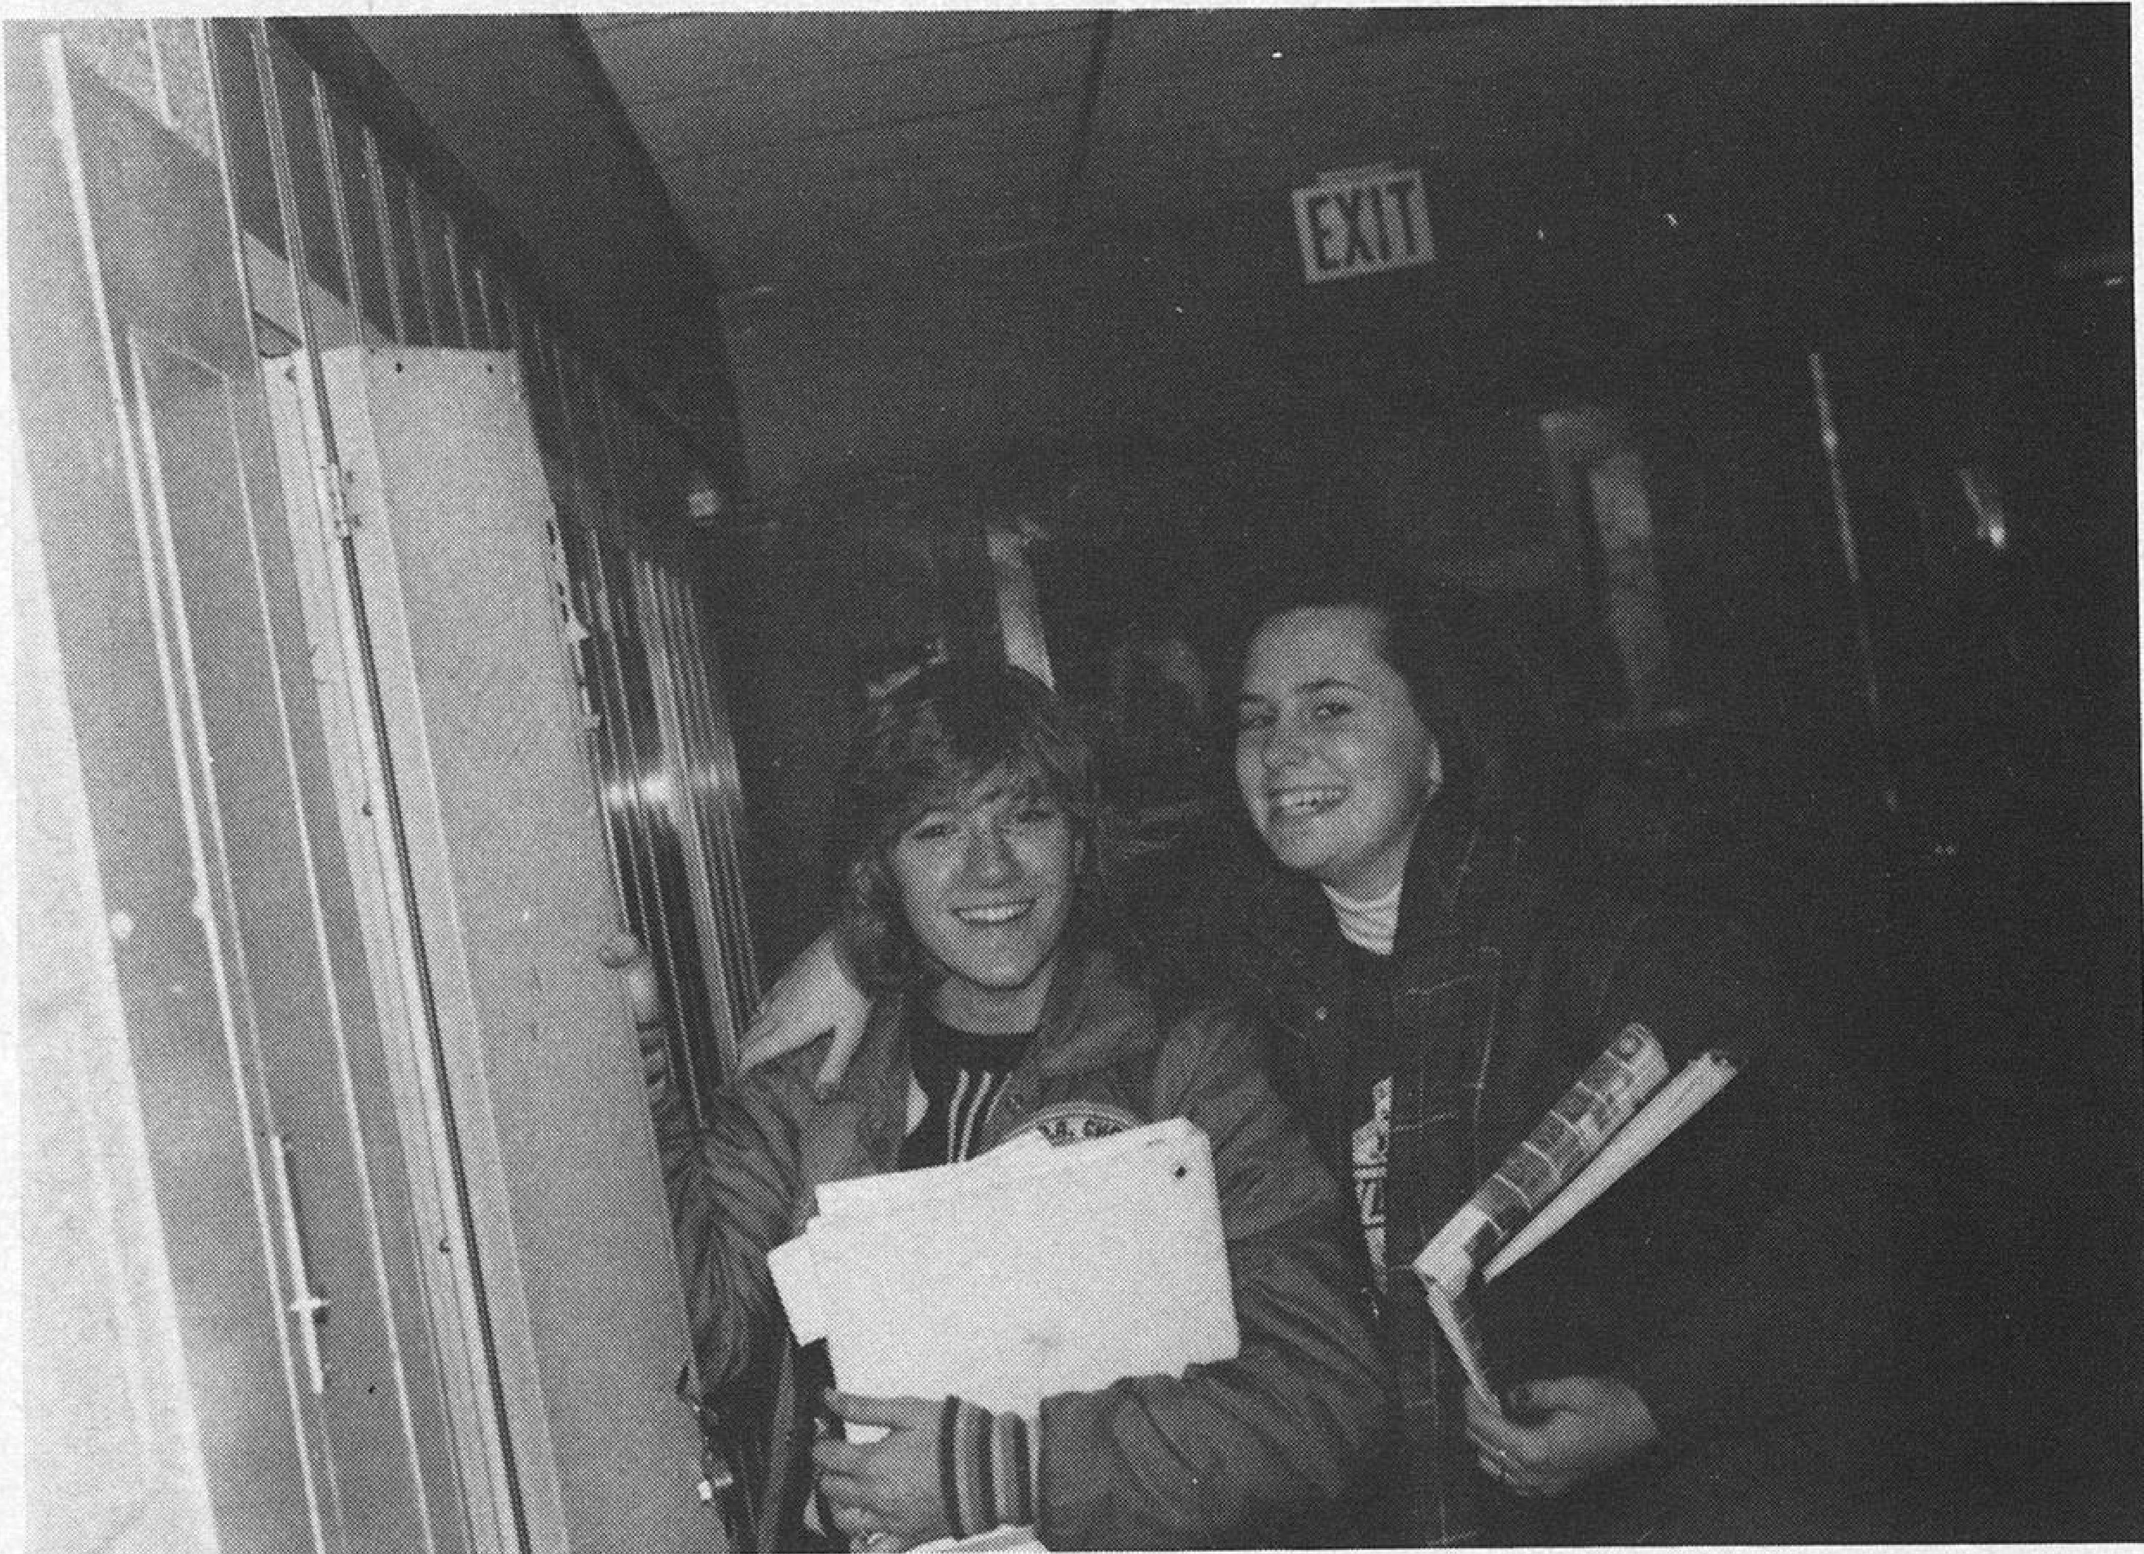

My friend you're unique;
One of a kind,
Whenever I holler for your help,
You're never hard to find.

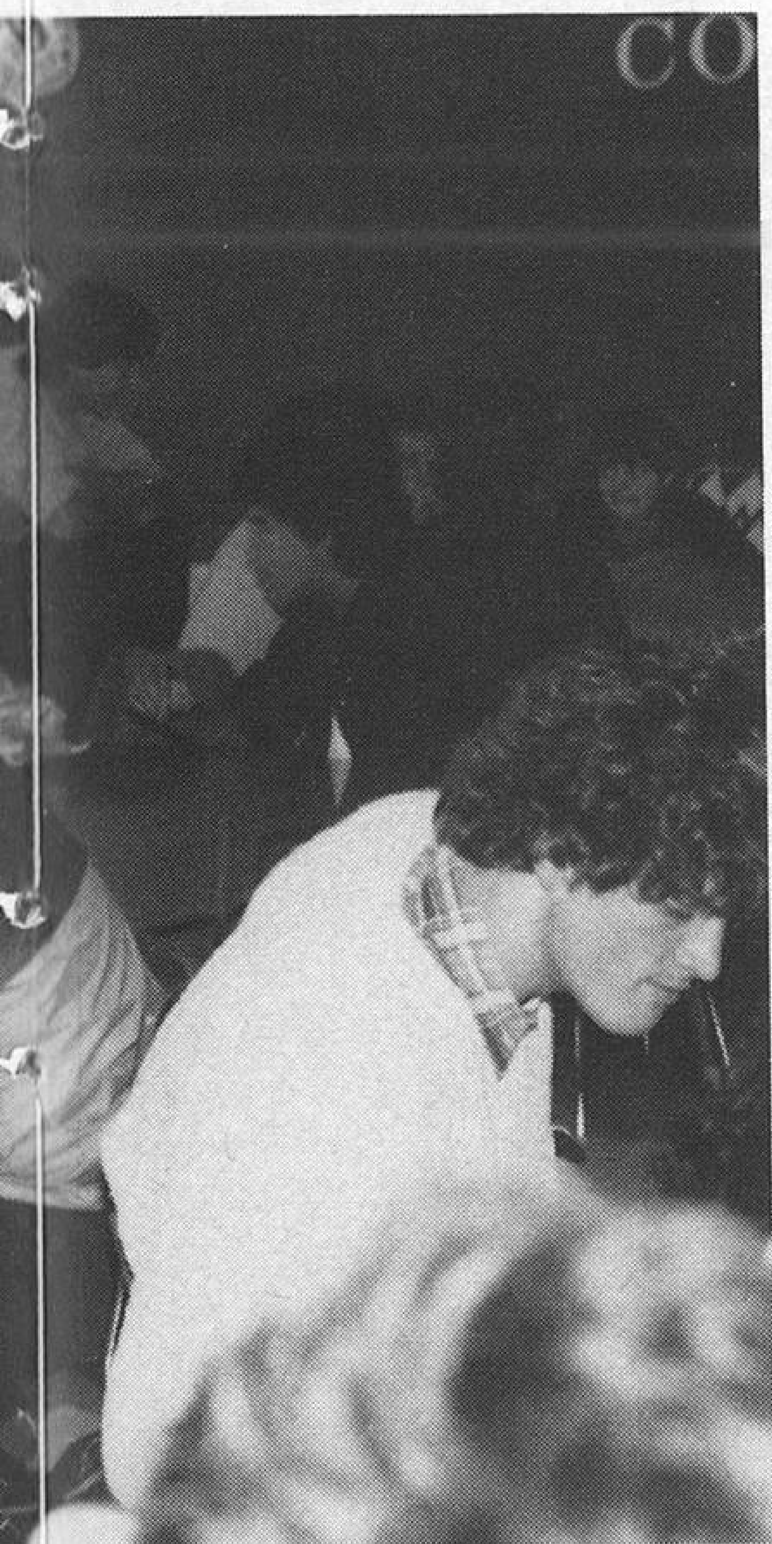

I thank you for this,
You're always there, you show you care
Together we try and make life easier,
For we know it just isn't fair.

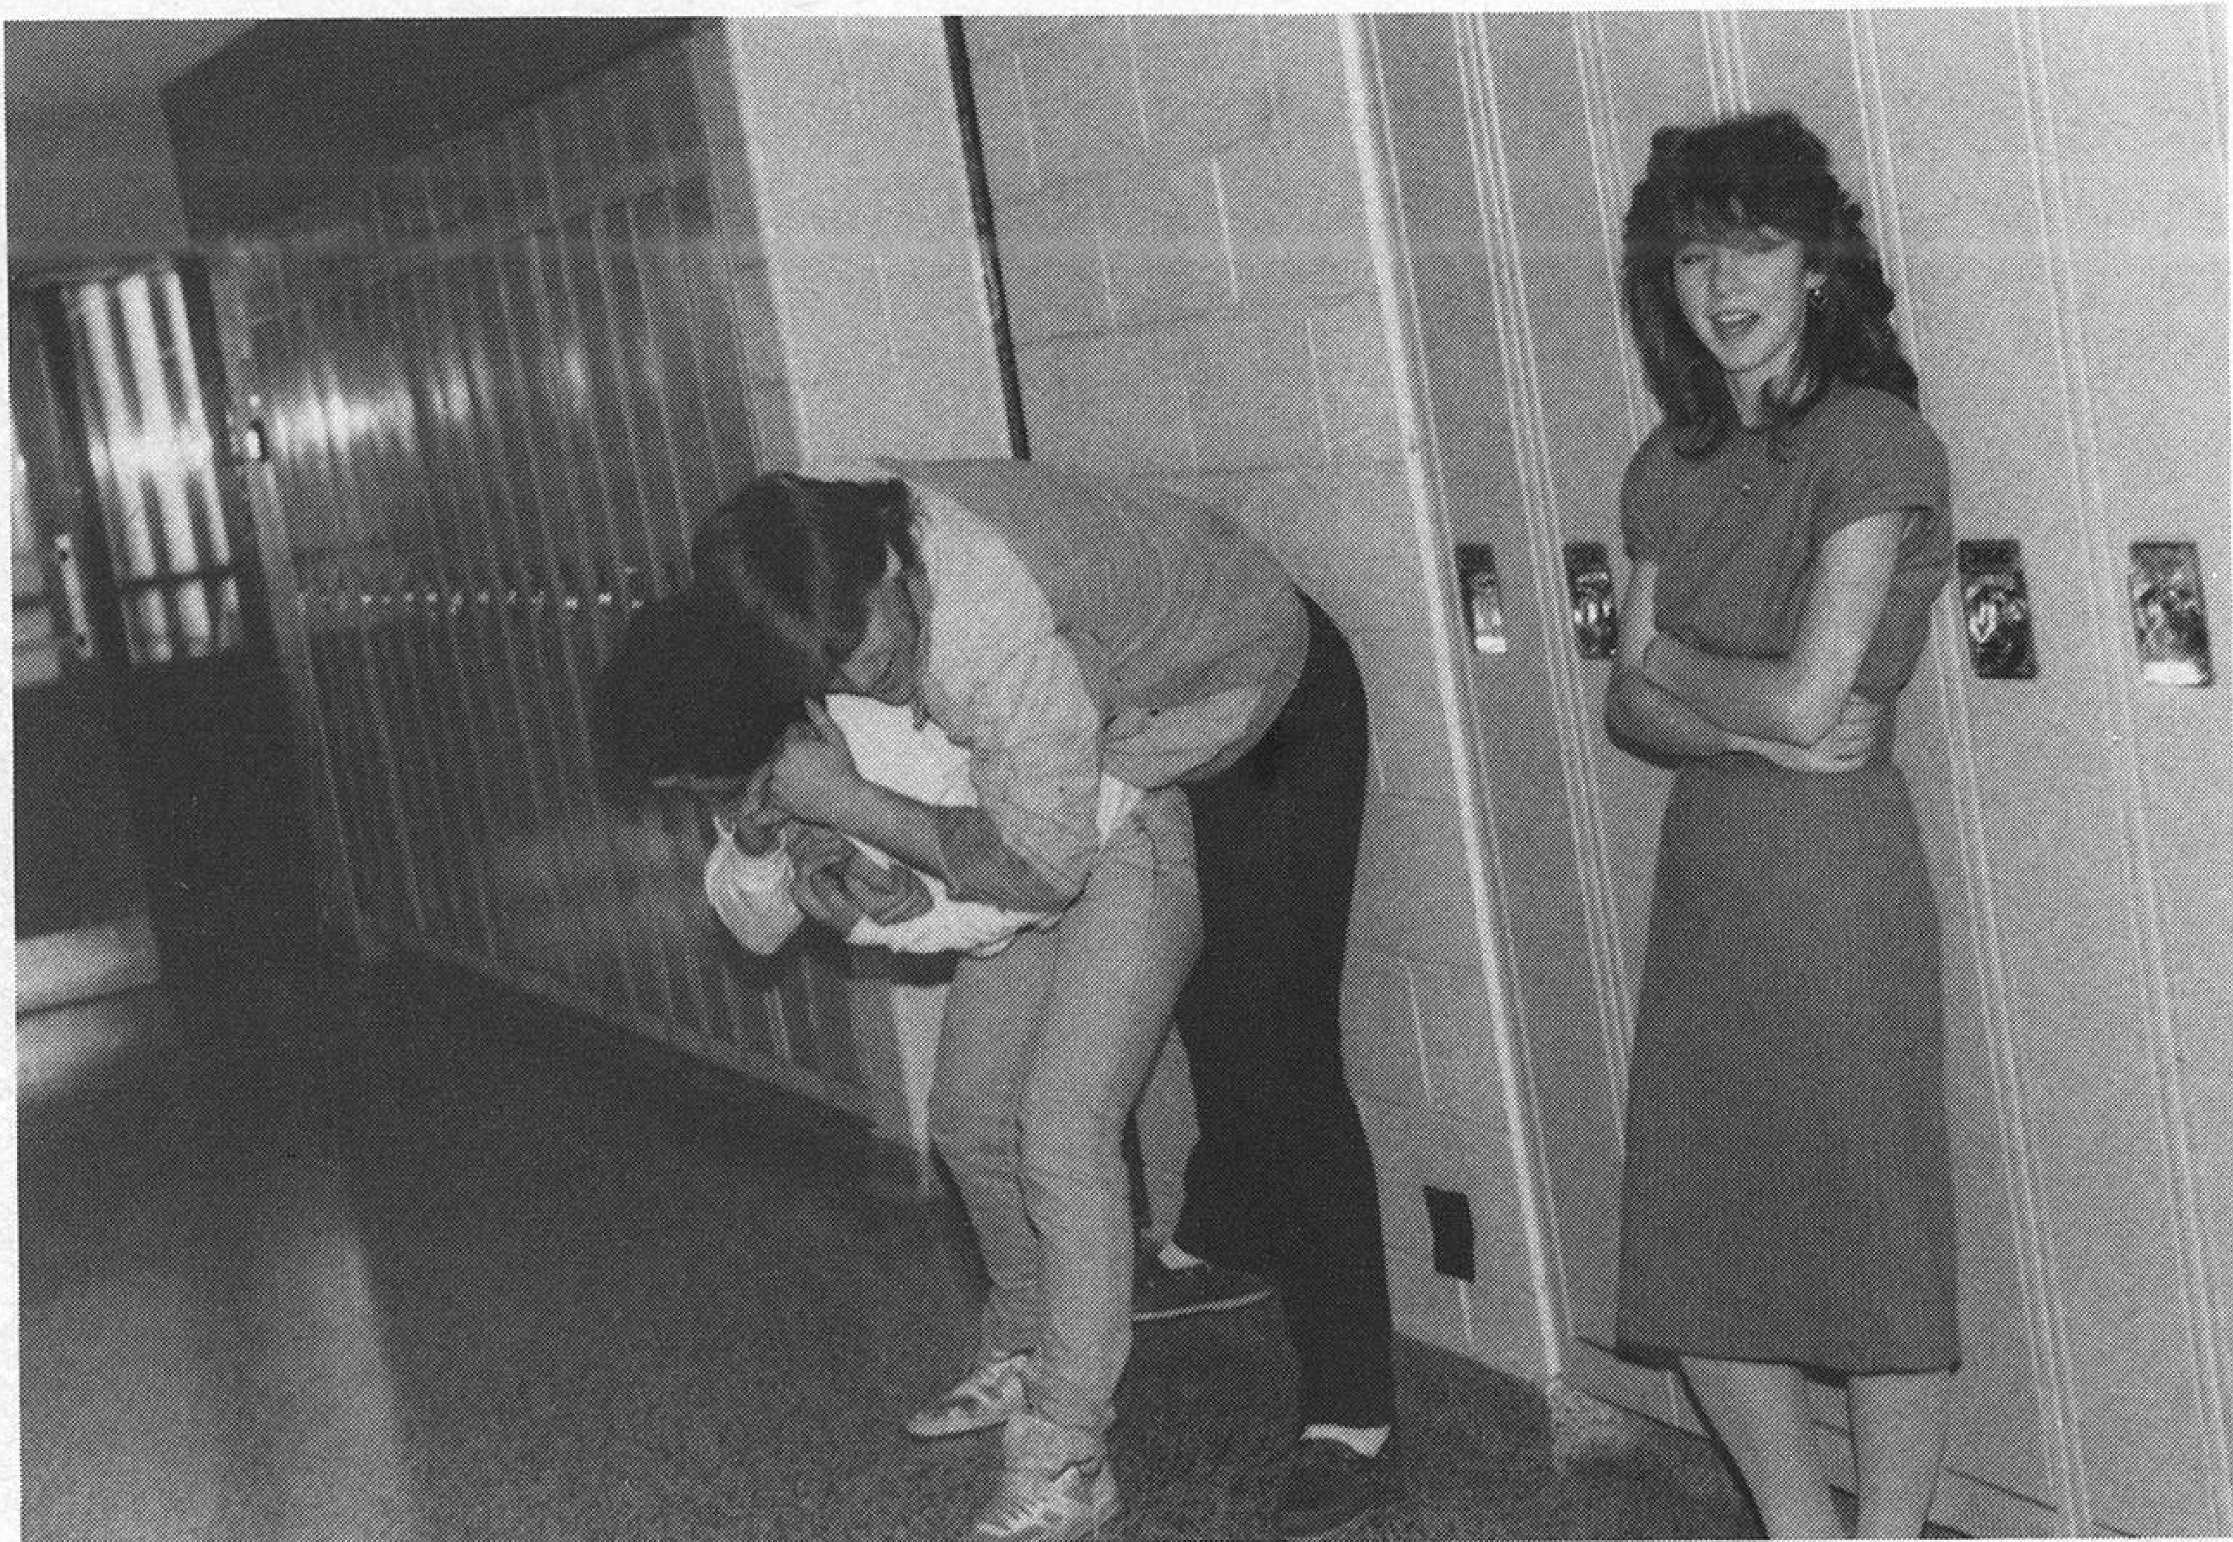

My life is yours,
For you cry my tears;
And I share your joys,
Together we chase away our fears.

We'll live through life,
As long as we stay together.
We'll live tomorrow's road,
'Cause remember we're best friends,
FOREVER.

TOP: Jim Giamou and Trish King. BOTTOM LEFT: Sean Hannah and Tanya Lee. BOTTOM RIGHT: Rob Gassler and Laurie Hazell.

THE WORK

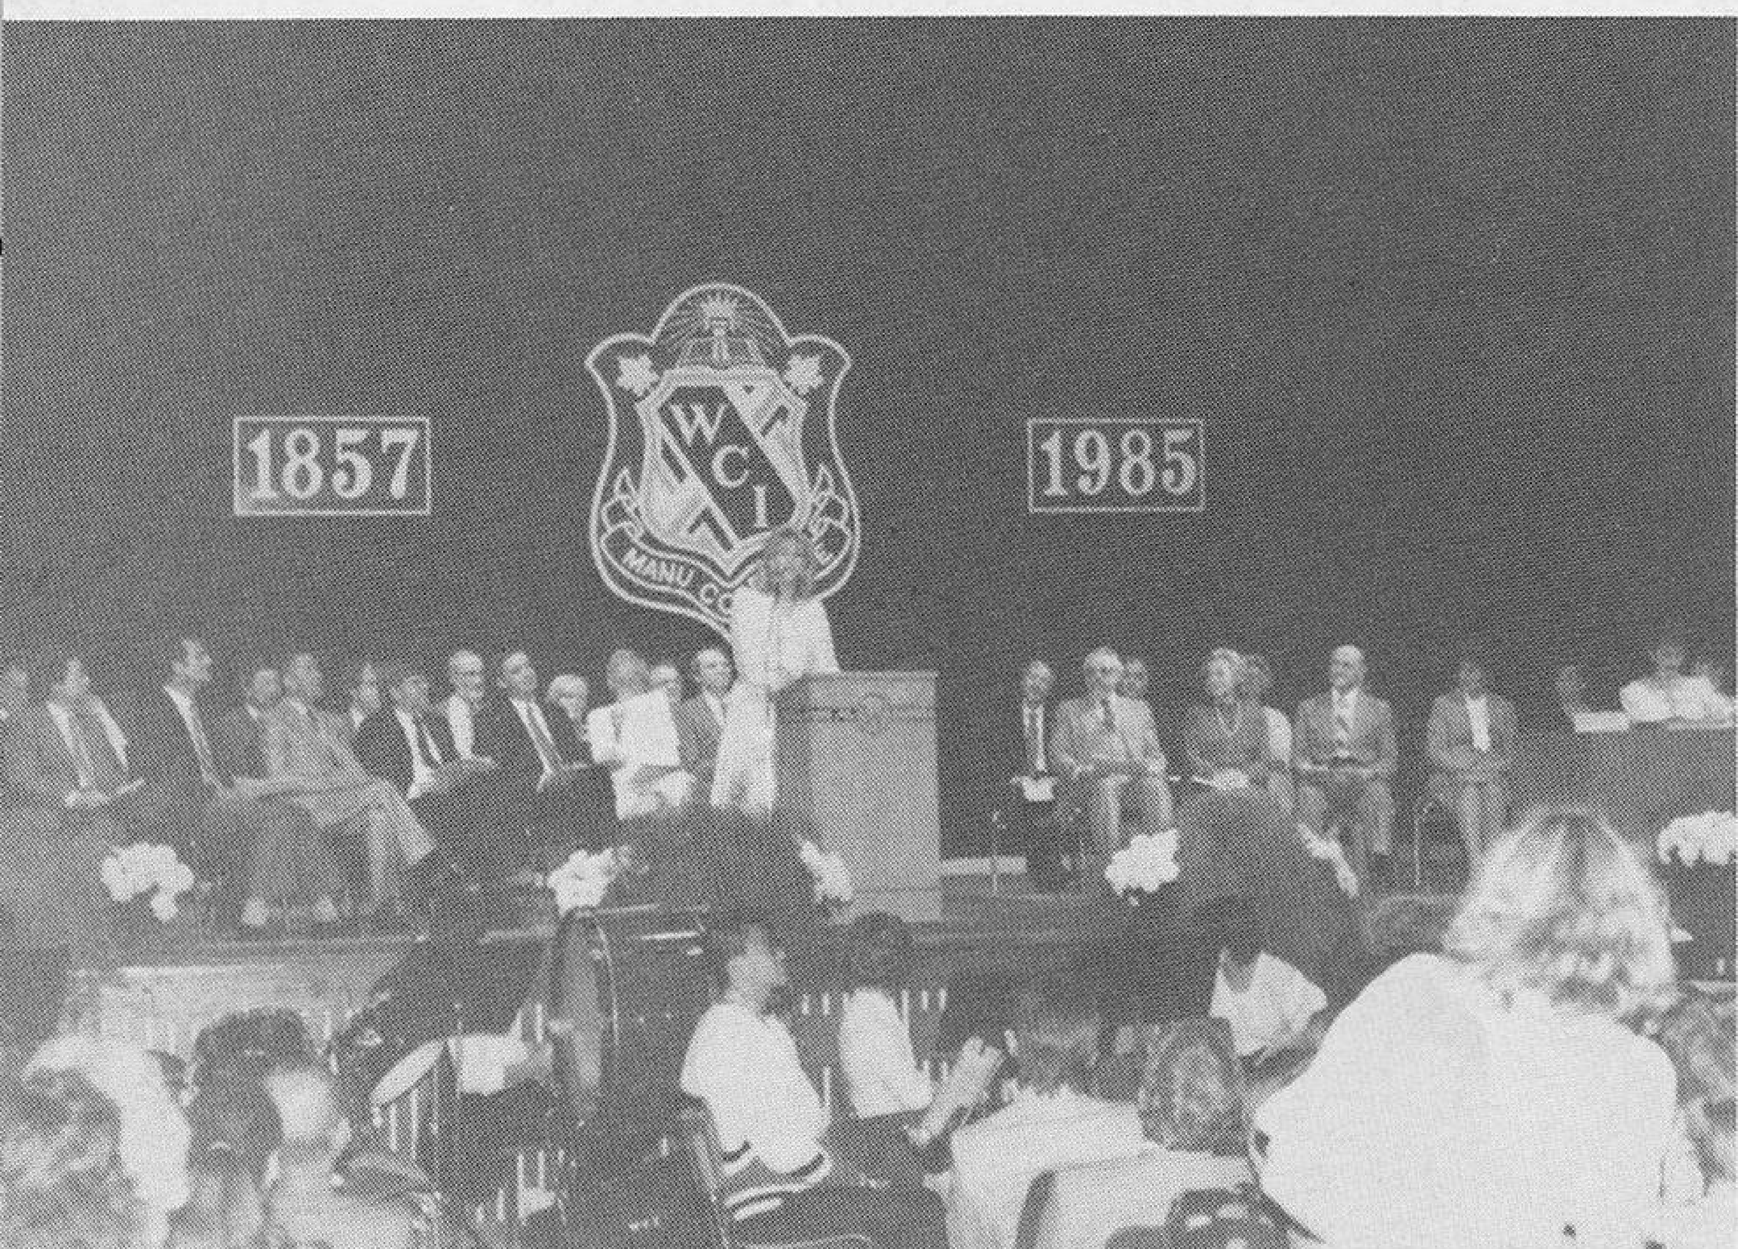

Weston's school spirit blazed, once again, as both staff and students gathered for the annual Hallowe'en Dance on October 25. The variety of music and extensive preparations from the dance committee made the evening a high-energy, dynamic success. ''Mad doctors'', enchanting witches, colorful clowns, a gigantic green-bean, voluptuous macho cheerleaders, and the prize-winning Whitepicket fence were among the bizarre band of masqueraders. The vivid imagination of staff and students flourished to make this one of the many magnificent memories of the 1985/86 school year.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE

C.A. Collyer,
Principal

We live in a period of great change. Weston Collegiate has also gone through a period of transition which has yet to be completed. In the past year alone, many of your classmates have come and gone, familiar staff members have been replaced by new ones, and many new and adventurous programs have been added to the fare at Weston Collegiate.

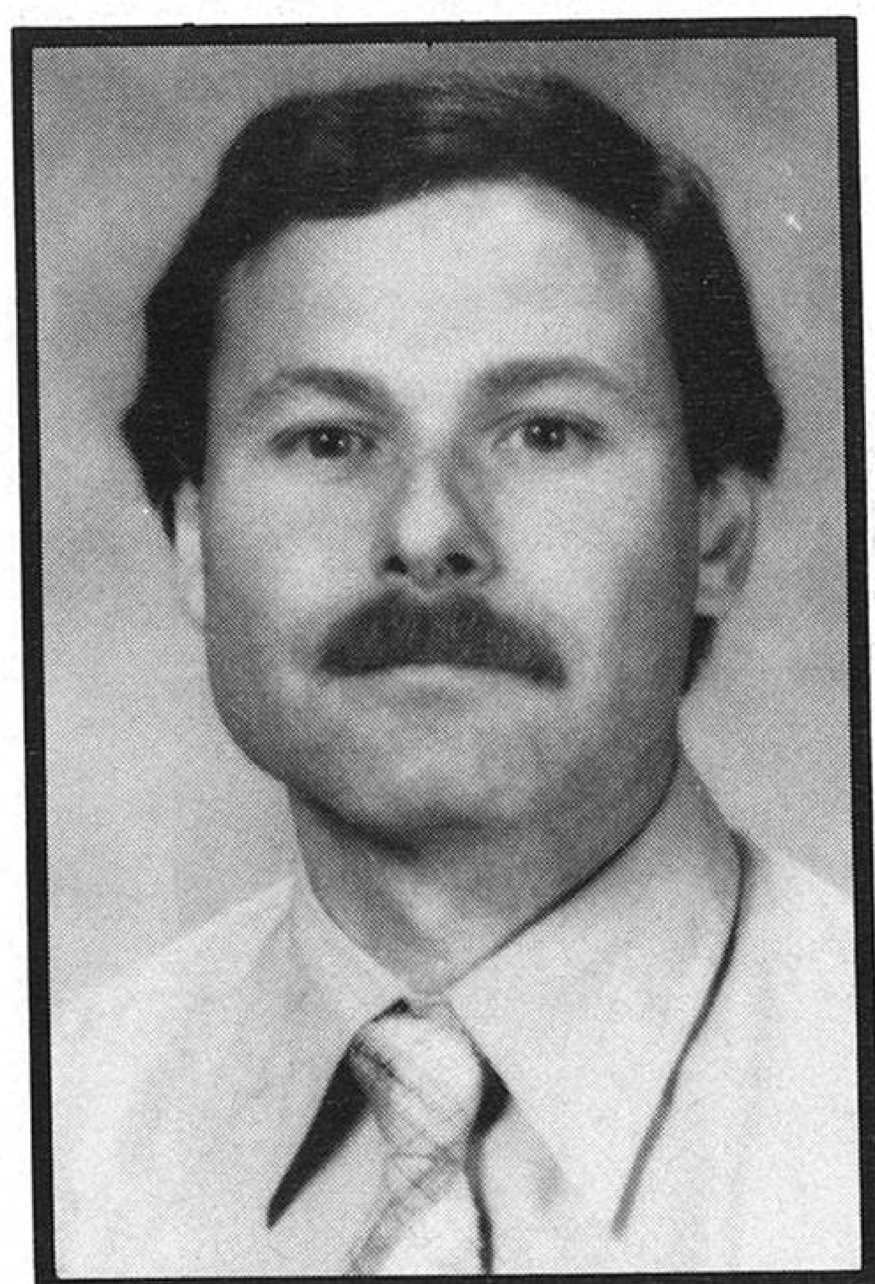

Yet in so much as there has been change, there has been continuity. Weston Collegiate continues to cherish its rich academic, technical, and commercial traditions, its excellence in the field of sport, and most of all, the strong relationships which have been built between staff, students, and the community at large.

While we continue to adapt to an ever changing future, let us continue to treasure those values and traditions which will allow graduates, past and future, to call Weston Collegiate home.

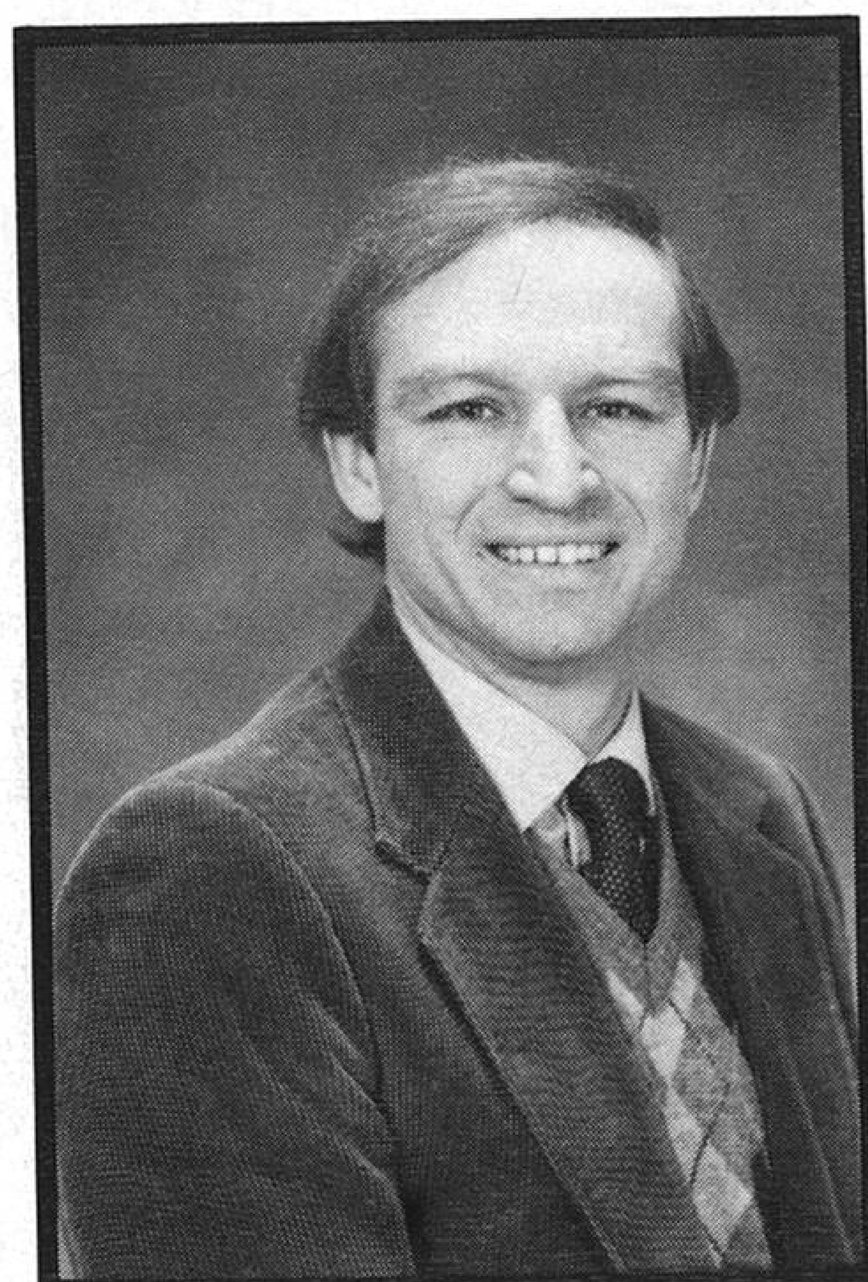

In closing, I would like to congratulate Mr. Kelly, Sandi Stumpo, Secondina Di Marco and friends for their efforts in the production of the 1985/1986 edition of the "Conning Tower".

AQUARIUS

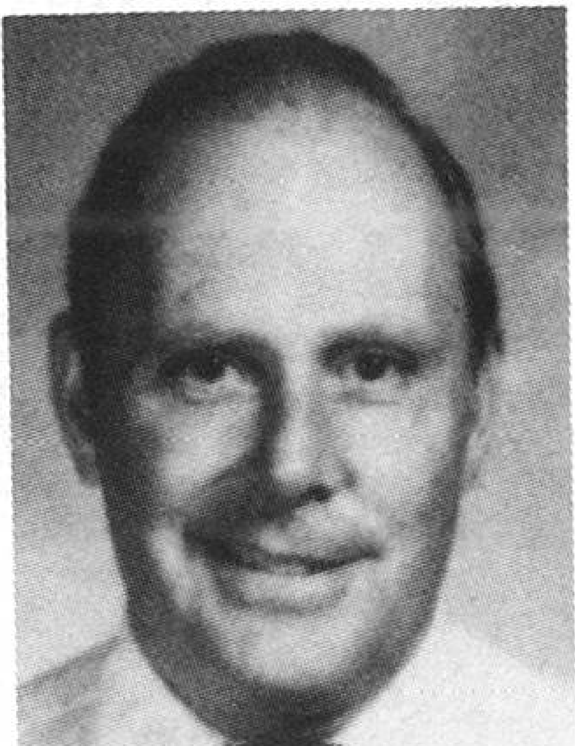

A. BEVAN
at W: 16
FP: walking & talking with wife & children

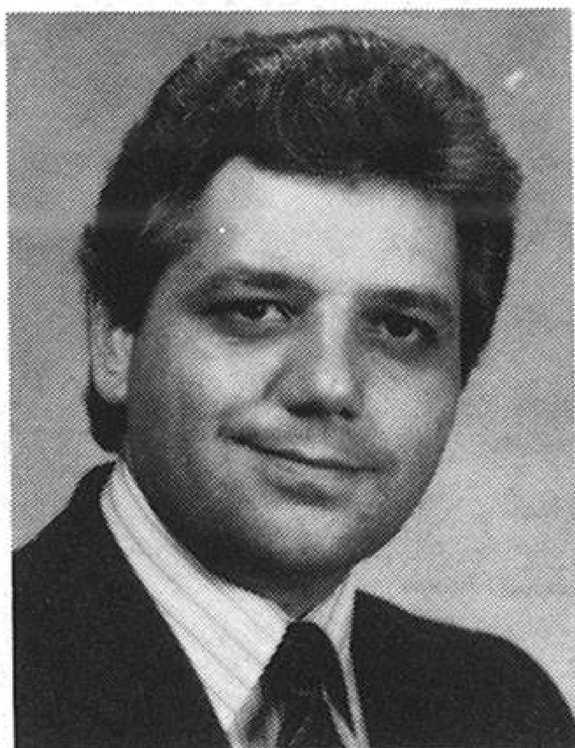

20 January-18 February
The Aquarian is quiet, gentle, not forceful, and not inclined to insist or demand his own way. He is helpful to others and speaks moderately and reasonably. Occupied by the sun, he is patient and frequently a little shy, and is easily moved by emotion. A great reader, ideas interest him and he is not at all inclined to brush them aside because they are different from his own. He also hates being criticized and may appear ponderous at times.

PISCES

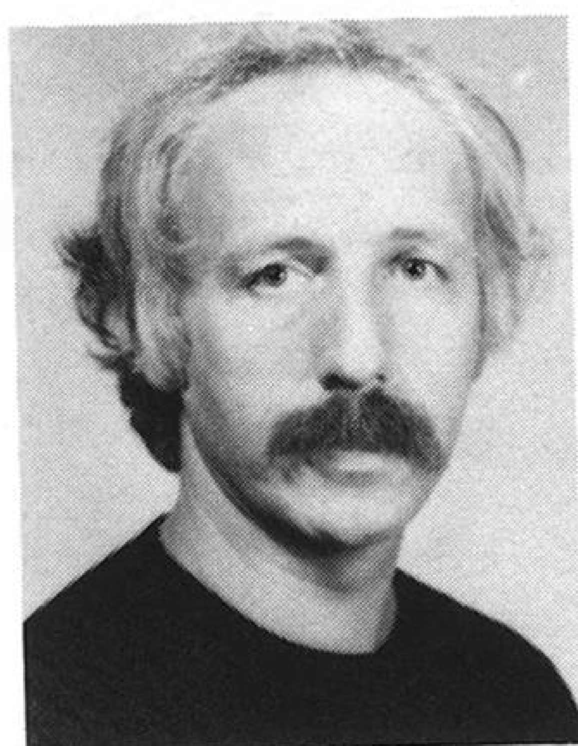

19 February-20 March
The sign of the two fishes is ruled by Neptune. These people are considered popular in all circles and do not mind being overcome by emotion. They excel in any profession in which they have to act up to a situation. Pisceans are attracted by strange and exotic places and are considered kind, good-natured, generous, but often rather weak-willed. They are easily influenced by advertising rackets for bogus 'opportunities', and yet they are versatile.

21 March-19 April
The symbol of Aries is the ram, suggesting energy, initiative, aggression, and push. Arieans are said to be very punctual and hate to be kept waiting. They will assert their own point of view and are said to have good leadership qualities. Thus, they consider themselves number one exceeding all others. Machiavelli, Brahms, Freud and Hitler are a few examples of this sign.

TAURUS

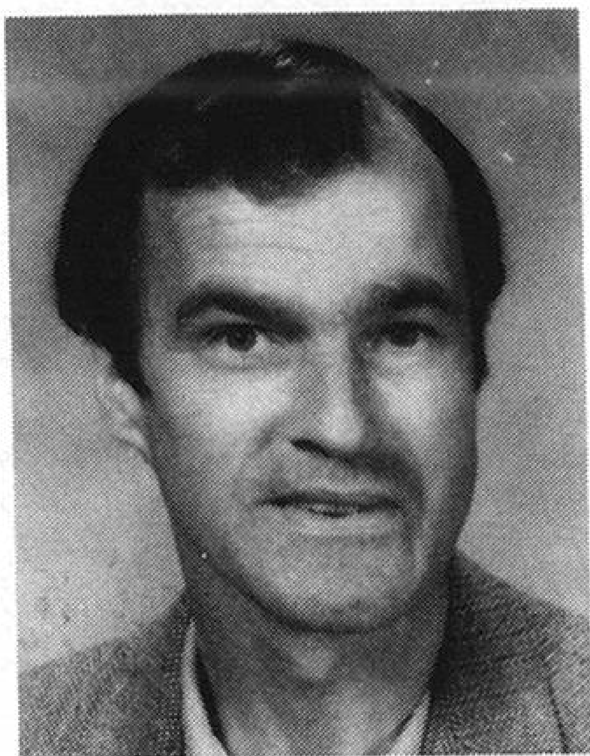

20 April-21 May
Taurus is ruled by Venus and people born under this sign are governed by their affections; they will go out of their way to avoid ill feeling. Modest, they do not seek popularity and are fond of music and pleasure. The Taurean is generous and naturally highly sexed, yet they are stimulated by artificial glamour. Taurus' keynote is devotion to a person, an ideal, or simply his work. Finally, he is not truly ambitious but is humble by nature.

22 May-21 June
Gemini, whose sign is the "heavenly twins", is ruled by Mercury, the planet of speech and writing. It is strongly associated with children and education and thus Geminians usually succeed at school. With this in mind, they make effective teachers and are often talented writers. They love to party and enjoy life usually thinking that it is a big game to be played. Youthfulness is another Geminian trait, carried occasionally to the extent of childishness in people old enough to know better.

22 June-23 July
Ruled by the Moon, Cancerians are said to be sentimental and rather thick-skinned than sensitive. They are ambitious, unstable, easily corrupted and changeable in their opinions and loyalties. They are likely to be employed in public affairs but not to remain in any one line of business. Cancerians often succeed as authors or journalists like George Bernard Shaw, Ernest Hemingway, and are interested in knowing what people think.

24 July-22 August
It is impossible to bully the Leos, they are only overawed by older persons or by those who are more powerful. Ruled by the Sun, Leo is confident of his position and is often too selfish. They are not extravagant and are said to be conventionally respectable in their general manner. Leos are usually interested in politics, but in spite of this he is not cunning and prefers everything to be open. Yet they demand leadership and do not tire easily in their work.

VIRGO

K. CAMPBELL

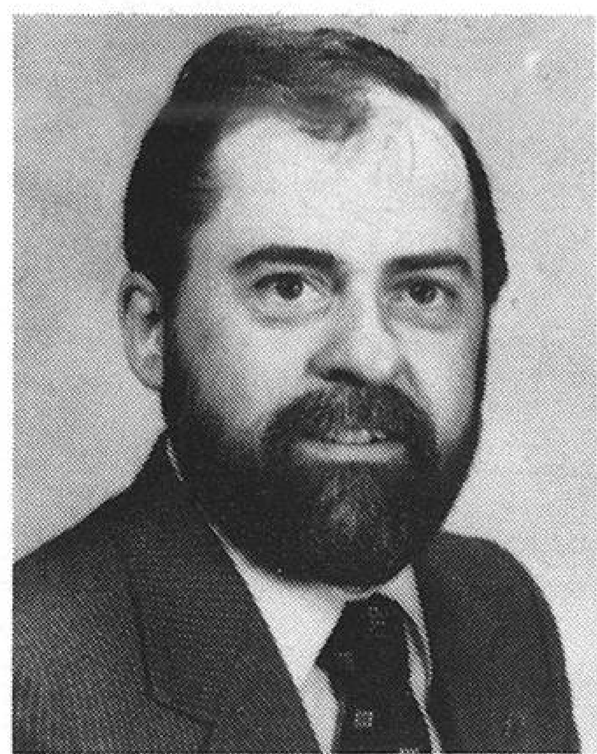

23 August-22 September
Virgo is constantly in the pursuit to serve others and are changeable and adaptable. Quiet and undemonstrative in the affairs of the heart, Virgo persons are genuinely affectionate and keep to themselves. They tend to shrink away from very close relationships and are modest, prudent, and possessed of considerable cool charm. The influence of Mercury, the sign's ruling planet, brings intelligence, yet a suspicious mind, careful of every move.

Librians, ruled by Venus and symbolized by scales, can be described as ambitious. They make good civil servants and are often successful as businessmen or lawyers. They are good at making compromises and are said to be useful, exceedingly trustworthy, and at times timid in nature. Librians do not like taking the initiative; they prefer to have some text or rule that they can quote before they put forward any suggestion.

24 October-21 November
This is the most dangerous sign of the zodiac, with quite the most tricky character that one might have to deal with. Secretive and treacherous, they are governed by energy and are ruled by Mars the planet of activity. Thus they want to act, not brood, and hence they are frequently uninhibited and impatient. To the true Scorpian nothing is too much trouble and he sees no point in hesitation. Work, to them, is a pleasurable pastime.

FP: my 15 hobbies

22 November-21 December
Sagittarians, ruled by Jupiter, are generally enthusiastic travellers. Idealism is another of their traits, and this can range in degree from altruism to dangerous fanaticism. They have the natural wish to succeed in life, and feel it is more fun to take a chance and gamble with the odds. People born under Sagittarius are usually interested in education and they often enjoy teaching, particularly of games and sports.

CAPRICORN

22 December-19 January
The goat, ruled by Saturn, represents restriction, limitation and control. Those born under Capricorn are represented as hard-working, humble, rather dreary persons who never venture to take a risk and constantly expect things to go wrong. Thus they tend to be over-serious, pessimistic and emotionally inhibited. Yet they are clear-headed, self-critical, and set high standards for themselves. Some Capricornians include Mozart, Schubert, Francis Bacon and Adlai Stevenson.

14. A short cut is the longest distance between two points.
15. When in doubt, mumble. When in trouble, delegate.
16. Anything good in life is either illegal, immoral or fattening.
17. It is morally wrong to allow suckers to keep their money.
18. A bird in hand is safer than one overhead.
19. Beauty is only skin deep, ugly goes to the bone.
20. To know yourself is the ultimate form of aggression. (Freudian Psychology)

This year the junior football team entered a new era. After many years in the York League, the junior Ironmen became part of the TSSAA, playing many of the teams in that city league. Unfortunately, the team was made up of mostly rookies and the team was unable to make a good showing in the first season.

The Ironmen did not make the playoffs, but as the season progressed, the players' skills improved and they came very close to victory in the final few games. As a result the coaches and players are looking forward to a more successful season next year.

Mr. Kishimoto,
Coach.

The Senior Football Ironmen enjoyed another successful football campaign in 1985. Although the team was the youngest we have had in many years the players overcame many adversities to show constant improvement throughout the season. The highlight of our season was an exciting last minute victory over previously undefeated North Toronto CI with many players returning we are expecting an exciting team in 1986.

SWIM TEAM

This year the Weston Swim Team had a successful year. Although we started with sixty swimmers, at the end of the season we went to the YORK FINALS/TDIAA with two dozen competitors. An overall team effort helped the team to edge out Runnymede in order to take second place. Also, a strong performance by Earl Eagleson, Steve Robichaud, Jim Magnath, and Lee Elliot in their respective races gave the team a needed lift. A good turnout of dedicated grade 9 students this year will hopefully help us to re-build further next year as we look forward to challenging UTS for the top position in swimming. I wish to thank swimmers for their faithfulness at practice and I look forward to an even better year in 1986-87.

In the semi-finals they defeated York Humber and then they went on in the finals to defeat York Memorial. The team is to be congratulated on staying together and seeing a job through to a successful conclusion. My special thanks to Rob Abott, Steve Mercer and Chris Crawford for their efforts in their last year of junior hockey and high school, as they led the team.

YORK CHAMPIONS

BACK ROW: Rob Vukovic, Tony Cacciotti, Danny Panagiotidis, Rino Molella, Angelo Marmora, Lorne Myles, THIRD ROW: Coach Williams, Silvio Urbacco, Victor Mitrovic, Keith Hightower, Mario Marmora, Richard Ramlal, Aimen Finhut, Victor Natareno, Greg Lane, Nick Sanzo. SECOND ROW: Richard Tomlinson, Duck-Soo Chung, Glen McCausland. FIRST ROW: Glen Roberts, Wayne Kerr, Etenem Oton, Cory Boucher, Pat Trudell, William Buitorn.

The 85-86 year was a banner season for the Weston Wrestling Team.

We had many second year veterans returning. Coupled with a good crop of rookies it promised to be a good year. Due to injury and other commitments many of the returning veterans fell by the way side. This however, did not stop the fine field of rookies. They came through with flying colours to aid the team in accumulating 17 wins and 0 loses.

Over the season we competed in the Erindale Novice Meet and the Etobicoke Warm up. In the Downsview tournament we sent a very strong side but fell short by a couple of points to take second place honours to Erindale CI.

We won the YORK DUAL MEET Trophy, the ETOBICOKE-YORK TDIAA DUAL MEET TROPHY, and the YORK CHAMPIONSHIPS for the seventh year in a row.

From the Yorks we sent 16 qualifying Wrestlers to the TDIAA championships. The team wrestled well and we accumulated many points but, again, we were the ''bridesmaid'' losing to North Albion CI.

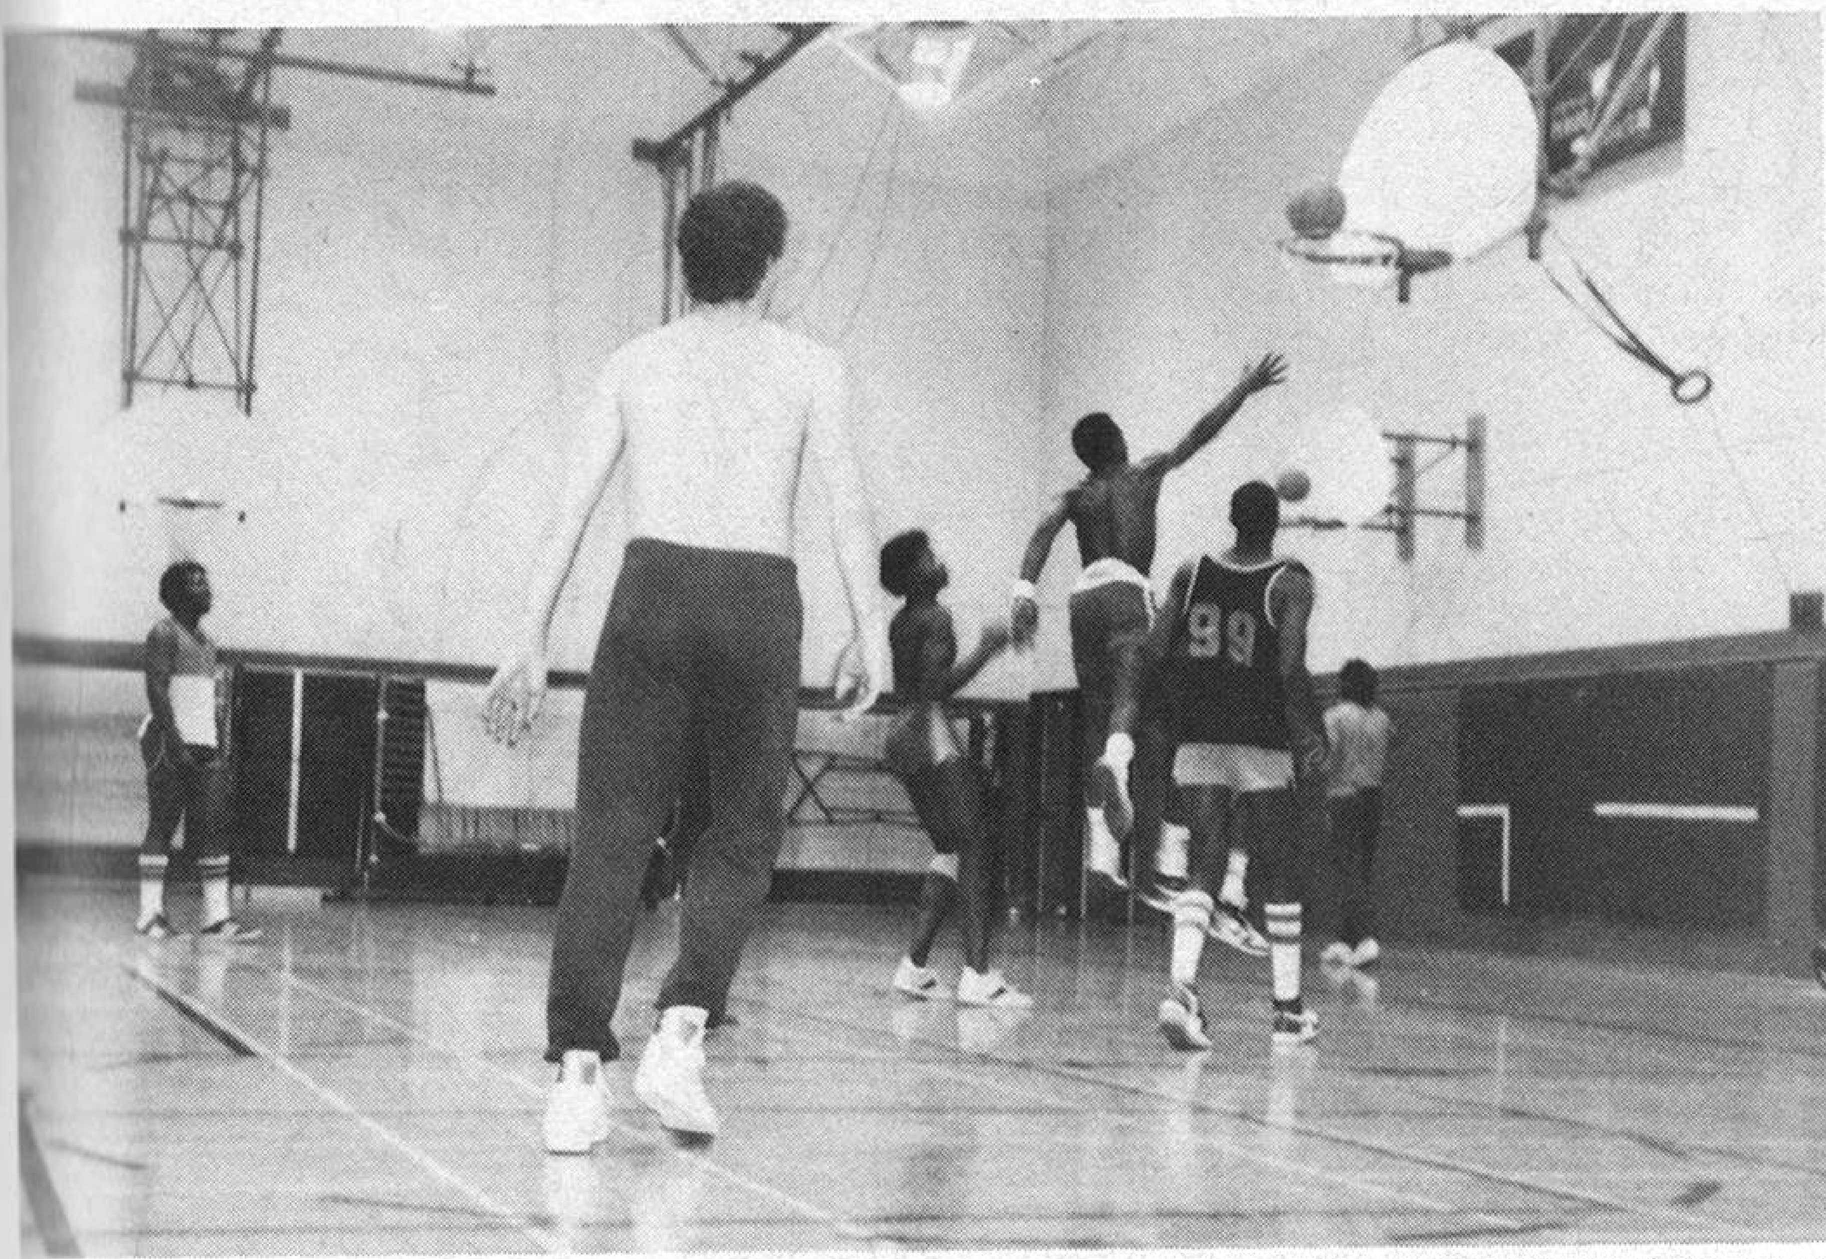

These championships qualified six athletes to the ALL ONTARIO FINALS that were held in St. Catherines on February 28 and March 1st. Here William Buitron 41K. and Pat Trudell 54K. were able to win a sixth place finish from the best wrestlers in Ontario.

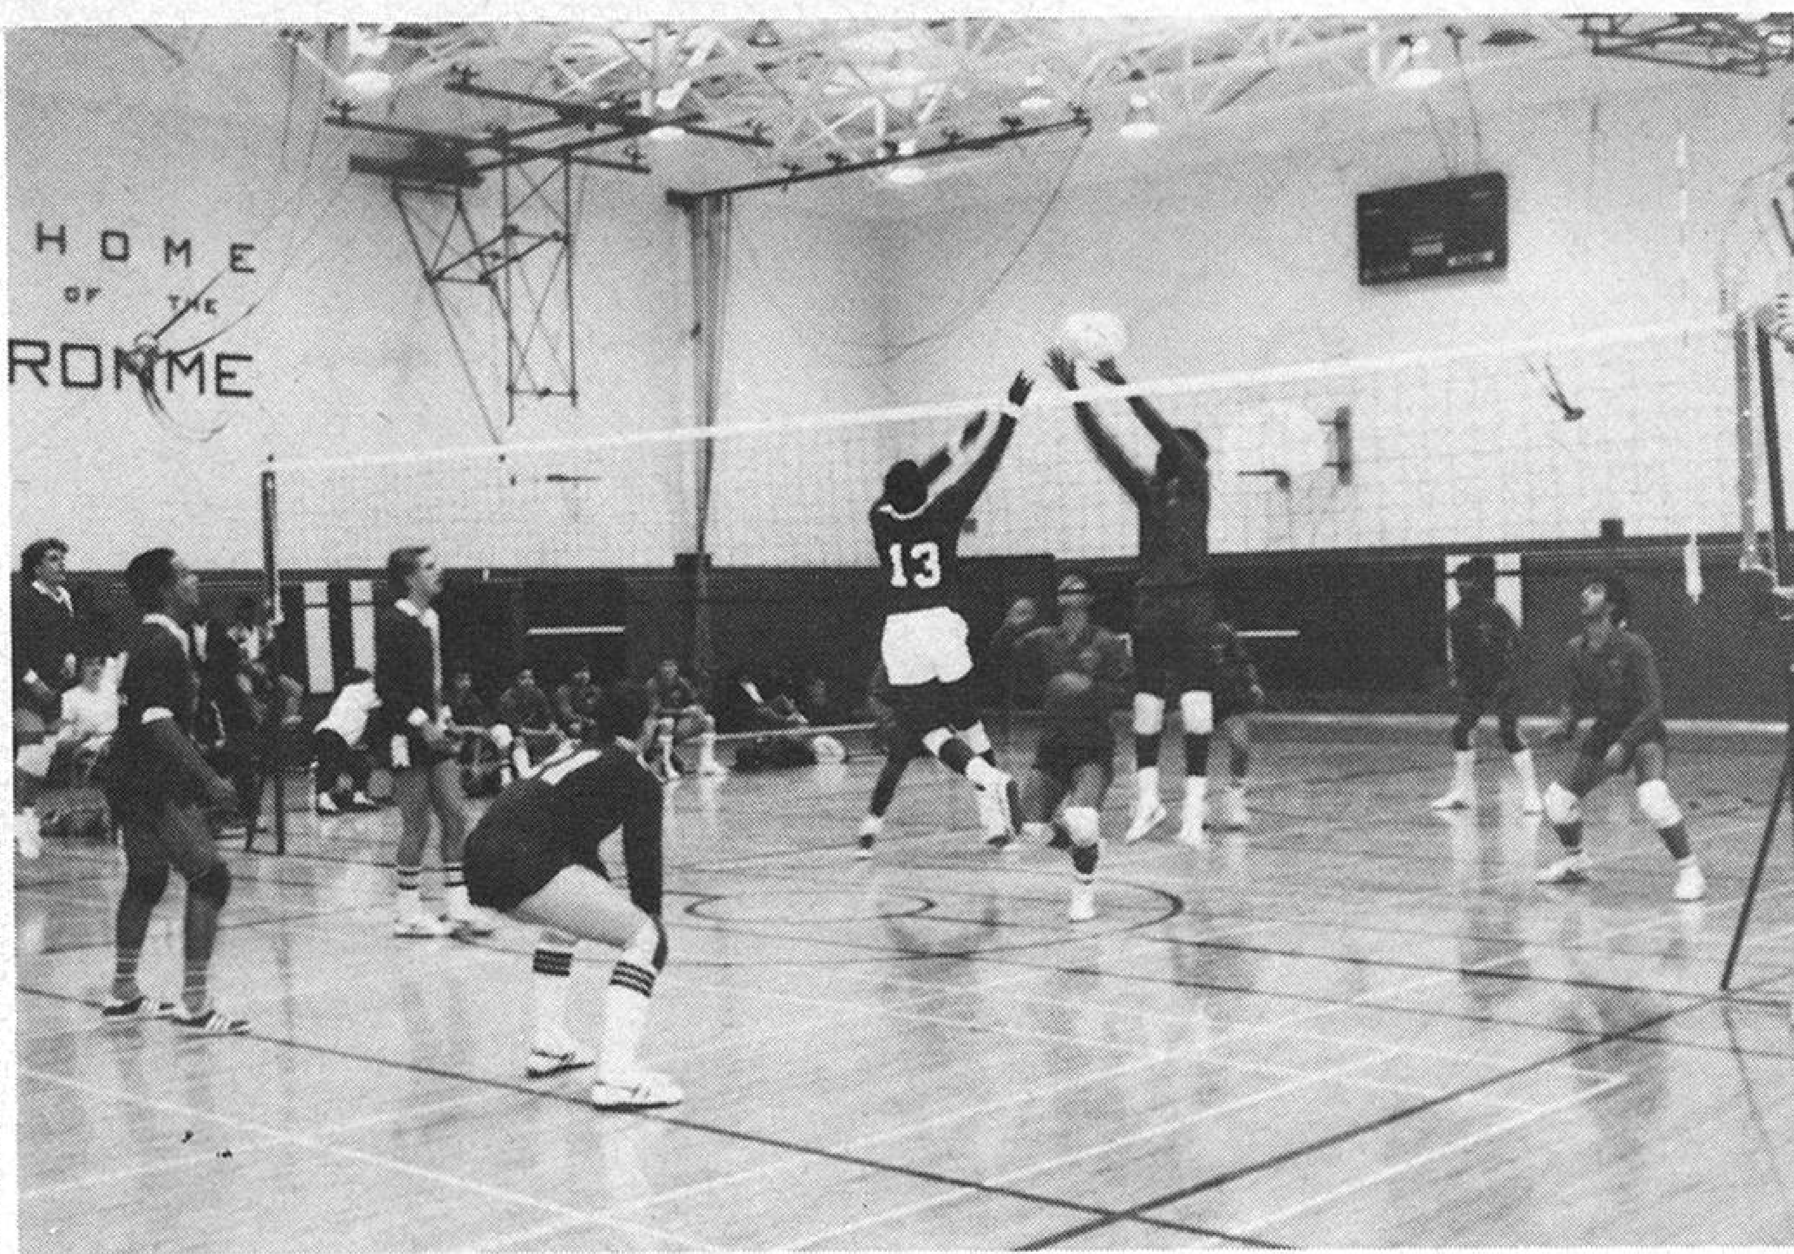

In all it was an excellent building year and the future for Westons wrestling team promises to be bright and prosperous.

(L to R): Pam Willett, Wendy Noah, Brenda Walsh, Michele Marzinotto, Eva Piatelli, Mr. Deline (Staff Advisor). ABSENT: Steve Alexiadis.

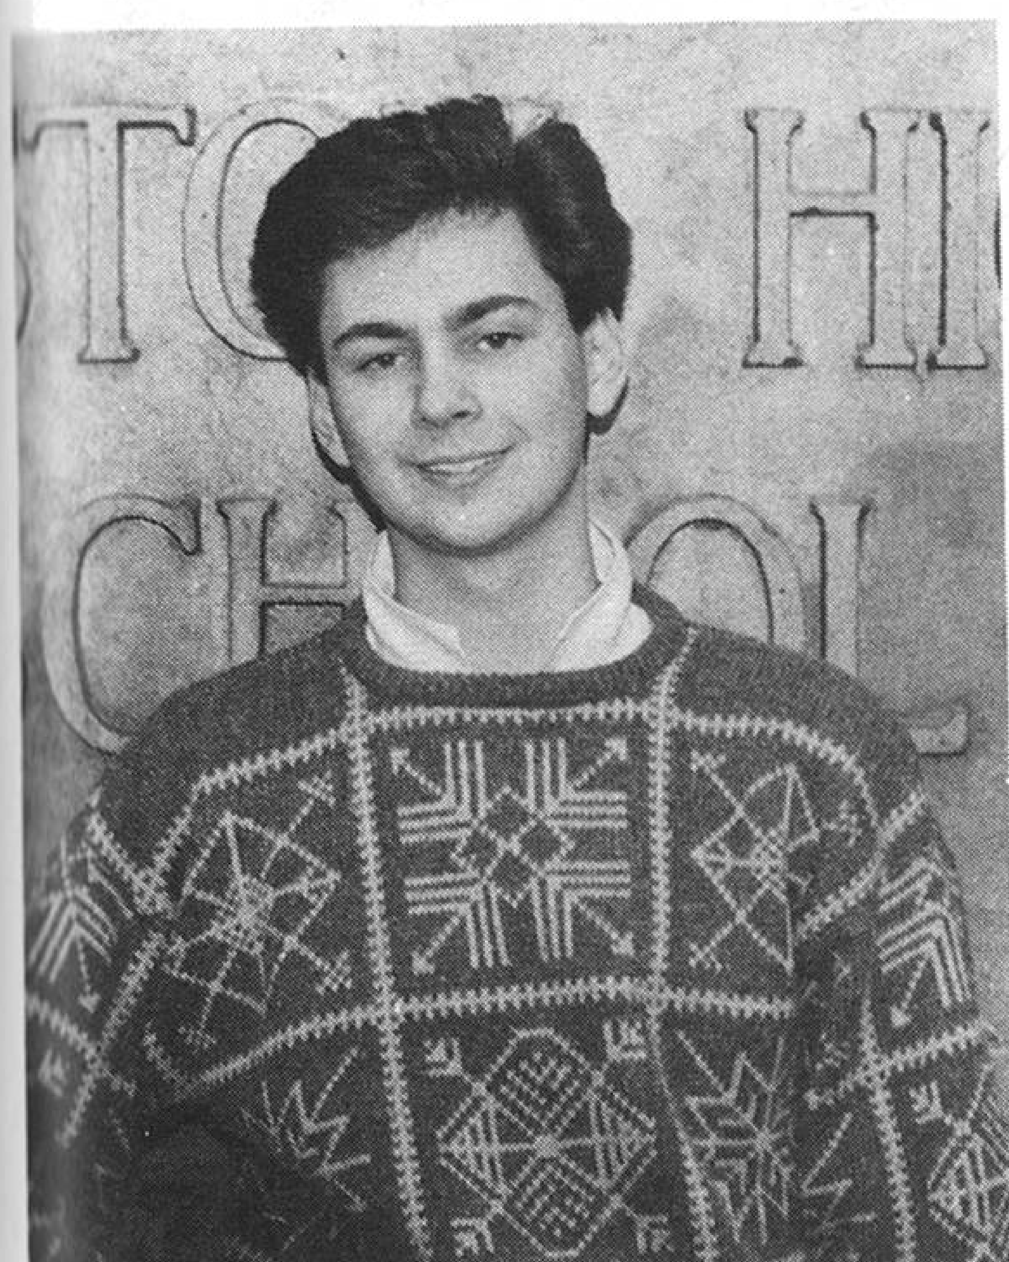

To you Weston:
Every year at WCI has been good, but this past year was the ultimate. It was great being President! I've acquired many skills, all of which will be of great value and use to me in the future.
Thanks for everything I couldn't have done it without you!

BRENDA WALSH,
President

There just aren't enough hours in a day! But life goes on and you have to keep picking your eyeballs up off the floor! Word of Advice: Do not attempt Student Council in grade thirteen. Also if venturing forth, make sure you have friends to help pull you through it. AUREVOIR!!

MICHELE MARZINOTTO,
Vice-President.

Throughout this year I have experienced how power effects people, how people can use and abuse it to their benefit. In other words It's been a Wingnut of a year. E-E- Yeah.

STEVE ALEXIADIS,
Treasurer.

Power and corruption - it's a way of life. Seriously, the combination of grade thirteen and student council is a true experience. - A GAS!!! - You live, you learn, you learn to laugh (at everything!!)
Remember me, Weston, when I'm old and grey, and can see what you've created.
Mr. Deline; you're the best, the greatest, the ultimate!!!

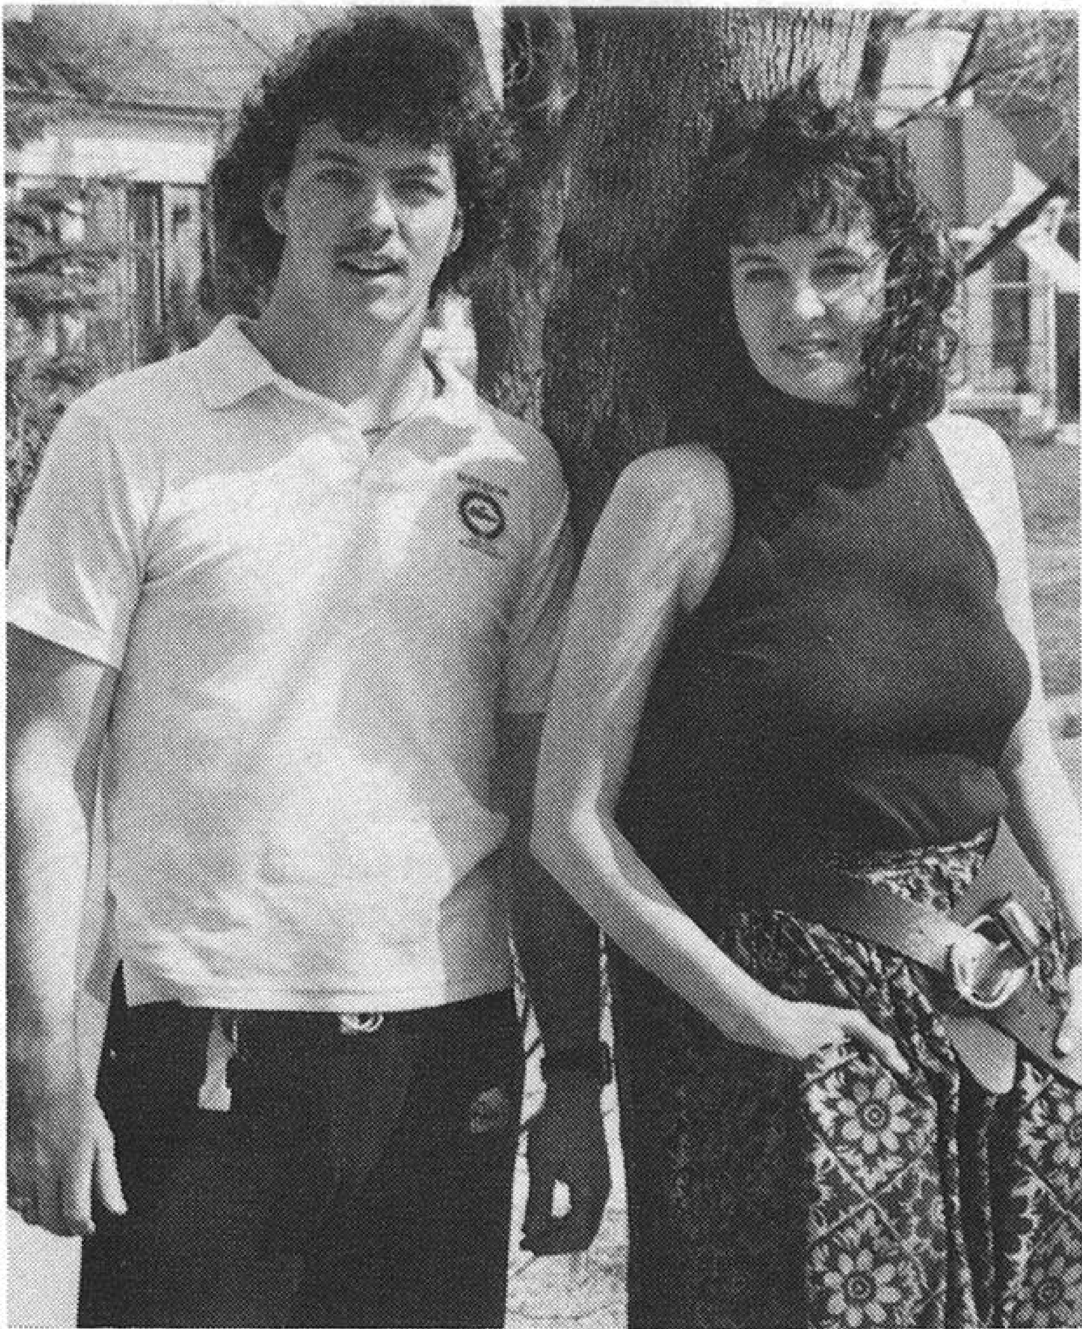

EVA PIATTELLI,
Social Conveyor.

CHERISH

THE MEMORIES

THE SPIRIT OF WESTON

Sunrise, Sunset,
Day In, Day Out,
The spirit of Weston
Will live throughout.
In the hearts of the students
the joy will show.
We'll spread the school with happiness
wherever we go.
This year we'll show it,
two times as much.
We'll outdo all the other schools
'cause we got the touch.
Sunrise, Sunset,
Day in, Day out,
The spirit of Weston
will live throughout.

Bonnie Malcolm

THE GAME OF LIFE

We'd talk for hours
And laugh so much
We'd share our secrets
And always keep in touch.

Our laughter changed to tears
And we'd worry about all.
While a friend came along,
Our friendship began to fall.

She's such a bad influence,
It's like she's your God.
What happened to me?
I'm really not a fraud.

I want you so bad.
She's stealing you.
And you're co-operating
What could I do?

I stare at the stars
And begin to cry
Wondering what I did
I could just die.

You were mine first,
I guess I lose.
What an emotional game
Your turn, you choose.

Tina Maestri.

FAREWELL

I see the likes between us,
I see our love for songs.
I see our quest for goals in life,
I know I can't be wrong.

But I know that we are two tracks,
Each alike in many senses
And I know that we shall never meet
In past, present, hense.

I want to summon up the past,
Behold it just once more,
Before I lay it down to rest
To sleep behind closed doors.

And in that space of heart and soul
Lies a pleasant thought
That once enkindled sage's flames
And from which light was brought.

Such is a pretty, charming young girl,
Who brightened in her way,
The mornings and the afternoons
Which fell on Saturday.

And in the end I cry "farewell!"
I sigh, though not in pain
For, alas, I am as free as thought,
And so would like to remain.

Khoman Phang.

RAINY DAYS

I like rainy days,
And what you see.

The rain as it falls,
The wind as it blows,
The pitter-patter on the roof.

The umbrellas so bright,
The people running to shelter,
The rainbow to be seen.

I like rainy days,
And what you see.

Janice Collins.

I DON'T LIKE NOISE

I don't like the bang,
I don't like the rattle,
I don't like the sounds
Like Clicket of clattle.

I don't like the hoof,
On a galvanized roof,
People that make noises
are considered a goof.

I hate sounds by toys,
I hate the loudness by boys,
This poem's driving me crazy
With all this noise.

But most of all,
I'd like to say,
I'll be very happy,
When these noises go away!

Christopher Barnes.

SCHOOL

School, with its confining walls
Of Concrete, wood, authority,
Prove hideous, uninviting,
Its grasp detaining the free.

Not merely "the wise"
With their preset ideals
But the companion and the foe,
Who often hurt but never know.

I have seen those who look to them
With eyes seeing only "the rule"
And I have seen them crumble
Beneath the weight of the mean and cruel.

Oh, but I do not follow
The Knowledged and acknowledged.
I see my goals, assess my ideals,
To live my life, with all my reals.

Khoman Phang.

A DREAM

Your leaving for awhile
All I can say is I love you
And I'm going to miss your pretty smile.

Moments with you I've shared
And I dream for more
So I have said.

I'll be right here waiting for you
Counting the days and nights
Proving my love for you is true.

You'll always be on my mind
To forget you is impossible
Your thoughts I'll always find.

I long to hold you tight
Never let you go
And just make everything so right.

If only dreams could come true
The night alone I'd Face
Without missing you.

Tina Maestri.

CANDY

I like candy;
Peppermint sticks,
Licorice sticks,
Snicker bars,
Hershey bars.

Spearmint gum,
Peppermint gum.

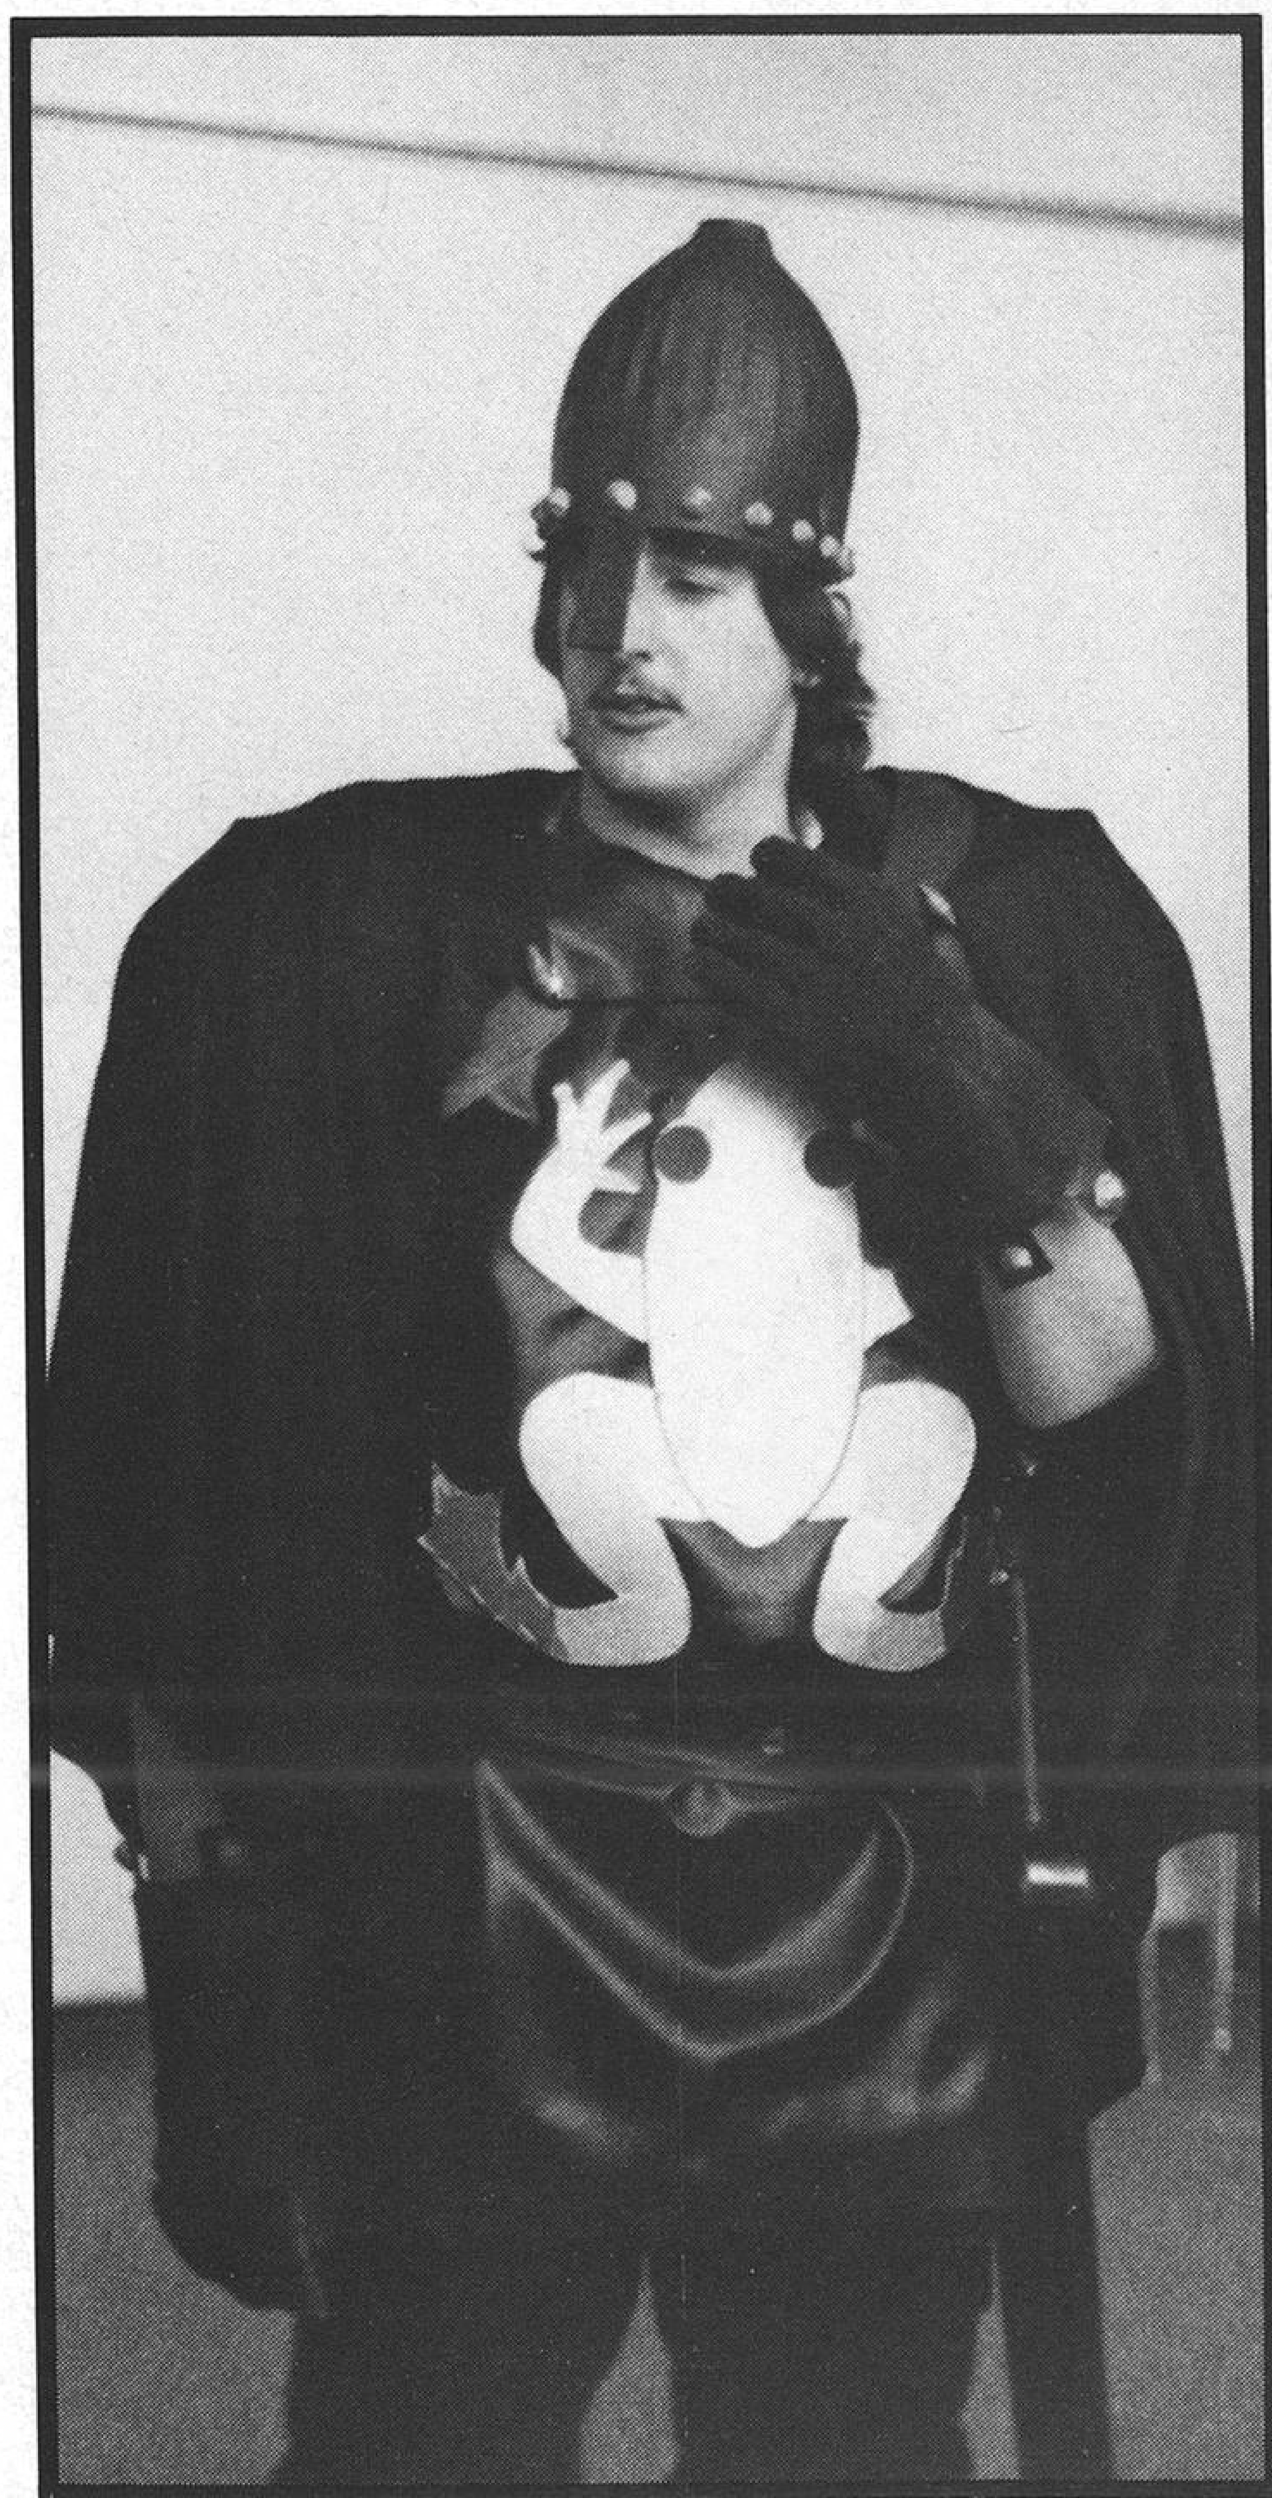

Onion chips,
Barbecue chips,
Regular chips,
and Pizza chips.

I like candy,
You will too.
I ate all the candy
I just told to you.

Kim Eldridge.
